Free Health Fair to Be Held at Early College High School

Presented by New Orleans Medical Association and International Society of Hypertension in Blacks

On Saturday, July 19, Pierre A. Capdau–University of New Orleans Early College High School, 4621 Canal Blvd. (Thurgood Marshall Middle School campus), will be the site of a free health fair presented by the New Orleans Medical Association and International Society of Hypertension in Blacks.

The health fair will held from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

National and local experts will be on site providing education, screening, and information on resources for assistance in focus areas: mental health, substance abuse, wellness, cardiovascular health and blood pressure control. There will be free food and giveaways available. The health fair is sponsored by Daiichi-Sankyo, Forest Laboratories, Inc., King Pharmaceuticals, Novartis, Pfizer, and Softsheen-Carson.
